

Your plan your way

We've added some tips and things to consider, little ideas that may help you

You can use the following questions to help you write down your personal wishes[‡].

Essential

1. I would like to be buried or cremated Please tick

2. Would you like the service to be religious, if so please state your denomination?

Any special rituals or traditions you may want to include details

3. Where would you like the service to be held?

*For cremation, which local crematorium?
For burial, which local church or burial site?*

4. Your final resting place

For burial:

Have you chosen a burial plot, if so where? Has this been purchased?

It could be with a loved one or at a particular cemetery.

For cremation:

If you wish for your cremated remains to be interred, have you chosen a plot, if so where? Has this been purchased?

It could be with a loved one or at a particular crematorium.

Or would you like your cremated remains to be scattered? If so where would this be?

A favourite spot on a walk, by the sea or where your family is from.

You can leave these blank if you wish

5. I would like the service to be led by:

You could choose a friend, local minister or civil celebrant.

6. These are the hymns or songs I would like to be played or sung:

You could think about significant days such as your wedding day, or a favourite from years gone by.

Ceremony entry music

During the ceremony

Ceremony farewell music

7. I would like any donations made in my memory to go to:

A charity that you support or may have helped you or a loved one.

8. I would like flowers on the day to be: [‡]

A favourite kind or colour, or is there a flower with a sentimental memory or aroma.

[‡]Please note flowers are excluded from all our plans.

9. I would like to wear:

A favourite outfit or item of clothing, or something from your hobbies.

10. The jewellery I would like to wear:

Something you don't want to be without, maybe a wedding ring or a gift from a loved one.

11. The route to the venue should be:

Past a special place; a park, your first home or a favourite view.

12. I would like people to wear:

A particular colour or a club tie or badge.

13. I would like the mood for the day to be:

Traditional, formal or a more relaxed celebration.

14. Special people I would like to make sure are invited:

Family, friends from now or years ago, school friends, old work colleagues or neighbours.

15. Special memories to be included in the day:

Any special achievements or milestones? Where and when you met your partner, the place you were born, where you married or places of importance.

16. Any special instructions or other things my loved ones may find useful:
