Our range of funeral packages

Support at this difficult time

Every funeral is a unique celebration of a person's life. That's why, at the East of England Co-op, we take the time and care to get things right. It's not just about carrying out your loved one's wishes, it's also about creating a fitting tribute that enables you, family and friends to say 'goodbye' in your own special way.

Dealing with the death of a loved one is never easy and there's a lot to think about. So, it's good to know there's someone to turn to for expert advice and support. We want to help you plan a funeral that perfectly reflects the life and personality of your loved one. Personal touches at a funeral can mean so much, raising a smile or evoking fond memories.

Please remember that we're here to help. Not just with the big decisions, but also with those small details that can make a big difference.

Our funeral package choices

By choosing one of our popular funeral packages you can reduce the number of decisions you need to make whilst also helping you to budget for all funeral expenses at one time. Our packages contain the most popular choices of our most loved products.

If what you want is not included in any of our packages, our funeral arrangers can help, simply ask to see our Tailor-made options and give your loved one a truly personalised send off.

What's included in the cost of a funeral?

A funeral is made up of many different elements. Our professional services take care of all the arrangements and administration needed to build a funeral.

We provide the official documentation and advice on certification and registration, we will take care of your loved one, arrange the service and pay the disbursement costs incurred by third parties.* These costs include doctors, clergy, crematorium and interment fees which are all included in each of our funeral packages excluding the Simple funeral package.†
